

2022 - R8 CHARDONNAY – CALIFORNIA

Aviators and winemakers alike are driven by a keen taste for discovery. Whether blazing the skies or walking the vineyards, they know the journey is its own reward.

In 1993, Michael Lancaster ventured from his native Toronto to California, driven by a passion for winemaking. His uncommon tenacity has yielded wines of true depth and elegance. Named for an airport runway that launches scenic flights over our Sonoma Valley winery, R8 is a guidepost for any adventurer seeking new horizons.

The 2022 R8 Chardonnay has a light green color with a tint of golden straw around the edges. The wine is medium body on the palate with Asian pear notes, finishing with a touch of buttery shortbread.
